This GitHub training...

IS

For research project management

IS NOT

For collaborative software development

Why use GitHub for project management?

Many of the same needs in collaborative software development as there are in general research collaboration

Project management needs

Single location for all things relating to a project

Set and assign project tasks

Manage multiple projects

Communicate asynchronously

Stay on top of project timelines

Ideally all of these on one platform

GitHub feature

GitHub repository

GitHub issues

GitHub projects

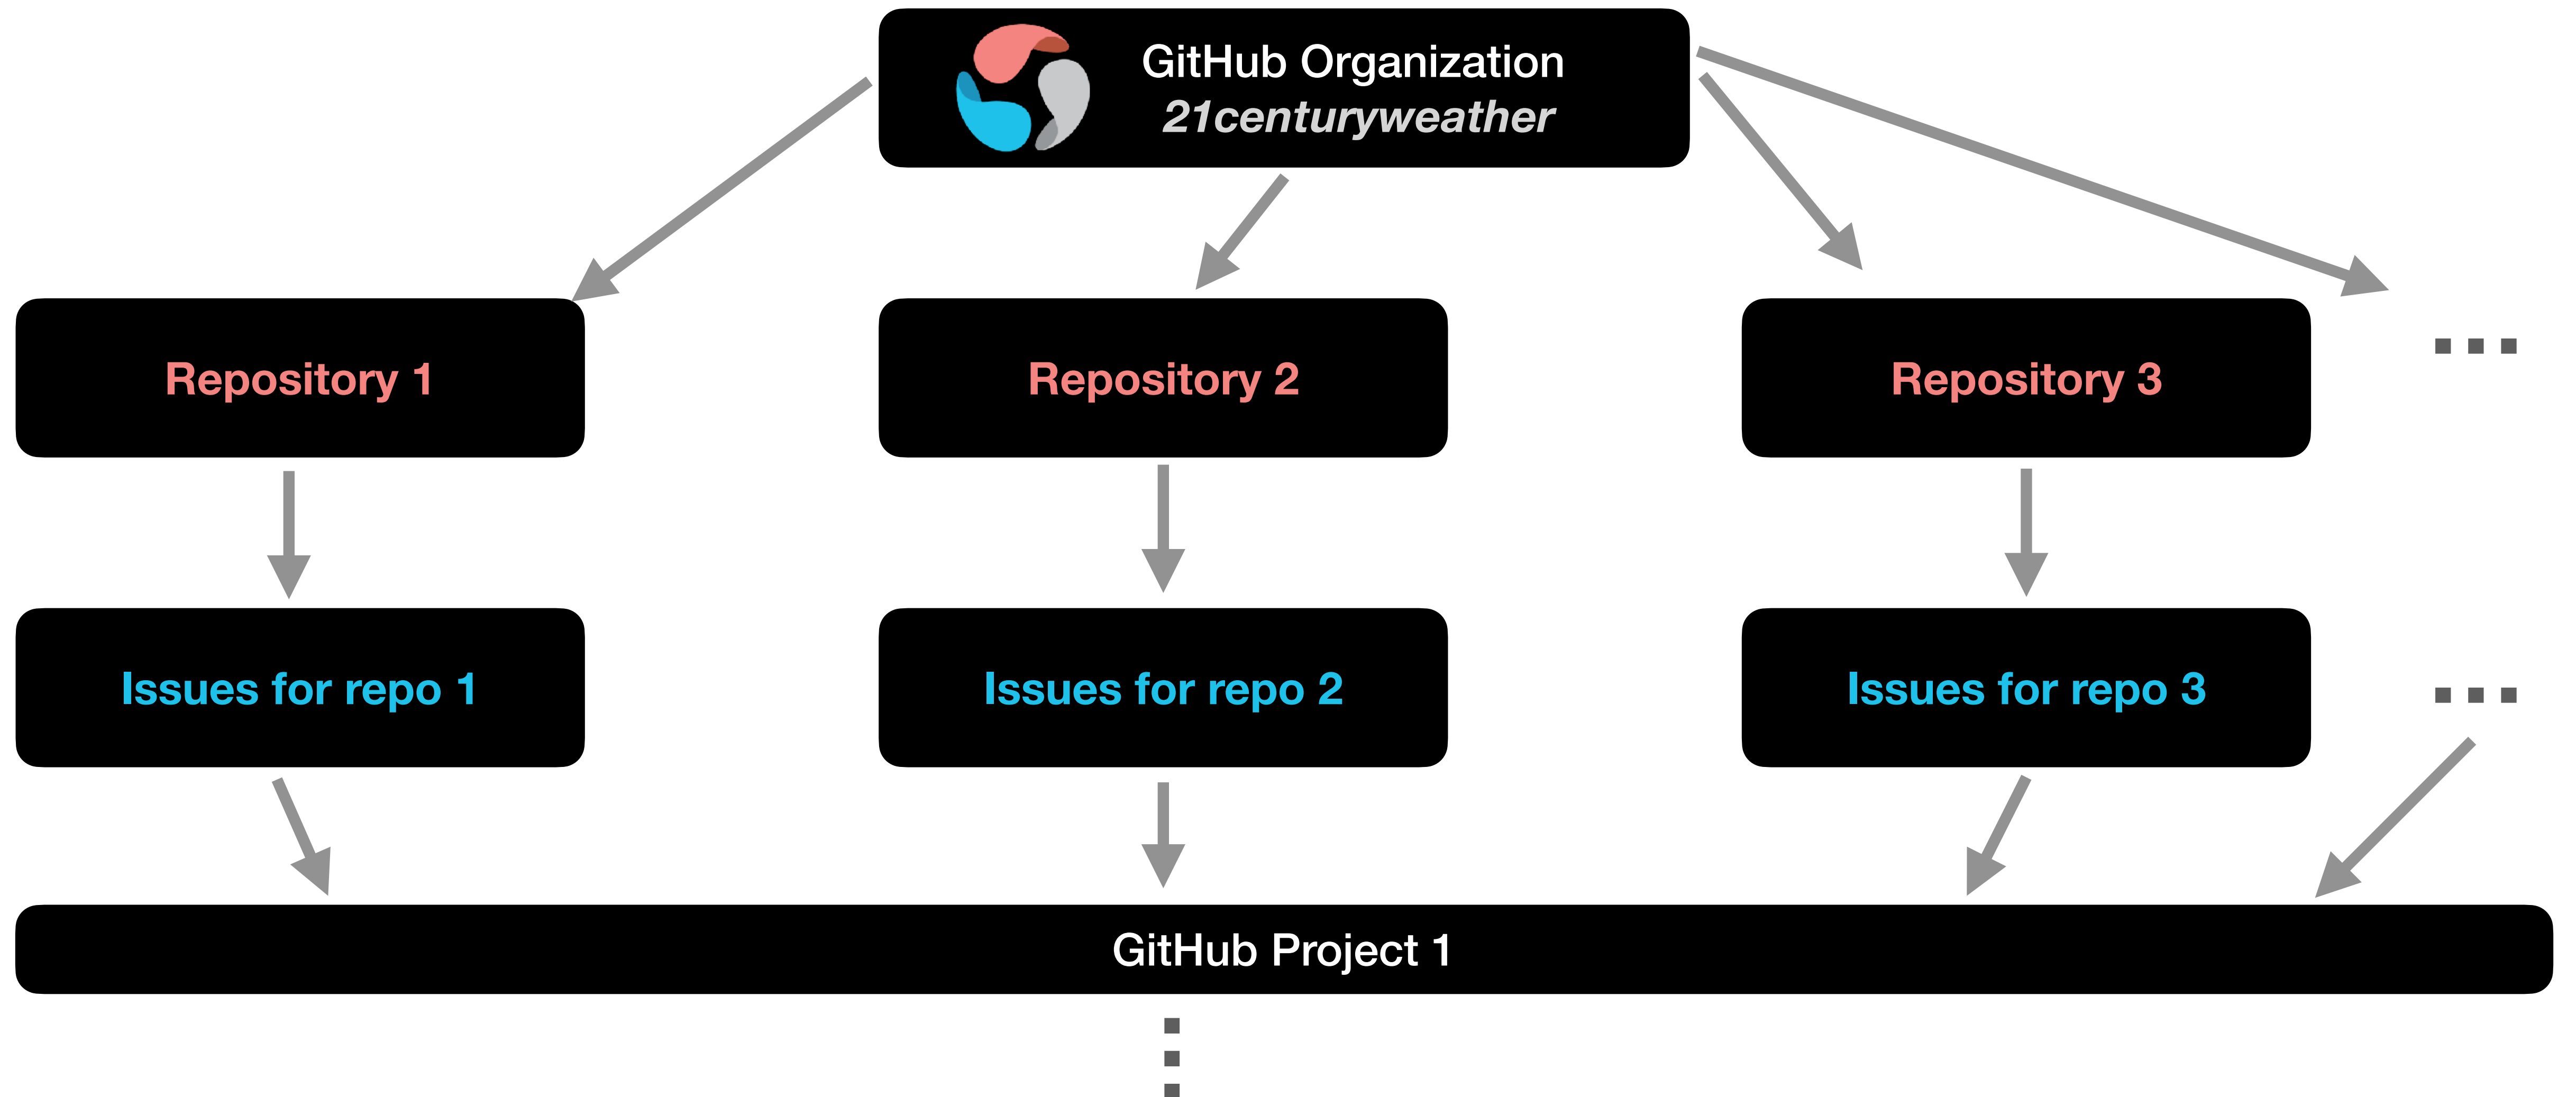

GitHub issue replies

GitHub Milestones

GitHub can do all of these things!
